

PATHOLOGY HONOURS SCHEDULE 2008

The Pathology Honours Schedule is designed to introduce the student to core components of research theory and presentation techniques, and then use formative assessment to develop those techniques throughout the year. The majority of the initial core components will be part of the School of Medical Sciences Common Honours Program involving students from Anatomical Sciences, Pharmacology and Pathology (see attached program). Attendance at the core components is compulsory. The remaining assessments throughout the year are conducted by the Discipline of Pathology. Due dates for work are fixed and extensions will not be granted.

Mon 4th Feb	General introduction and welcome	10 am (N131, School Tea Room)
	Discipline – Based Intro to Facilities	10.30 am
Tues 5 th Feb	Biosafety, Occupational Health and Safety (Ms Betty Reinboth)	10 am (rm N519, level 5, Med. School North)
	Biosafety, Occupational Health and Safety (Discipline based)	11 am
Wed 6 th Feb	Database searching and endnote (Dr Rachel Norris)	10 am (rm N519, level 5, Med. School North)
	Writing literature reviews (Prof Robert Vink)	11 am (rm N519, level 5, Med. School North)
	Scientific Writing (Dr Bruce Firth)	12 pm (rm 519, level 5, Med. School North)
	Making presentations (Dr David Haynes)	2 pm (rm 519, level 5, Med. School North)
Thurs 7 th Feb	Experimental design and statistics for Medical Sciences (Dr Ian Musgrave)	10 am (rm 519, level 5, Med. School North)
	Research Ethics (Dr Jeff Trahair)	11 am (rm 519, level 5, Med. School North)
Thurs 27th Mar	Student Introductory Presentations	1 pm (rm 519, level 5, Med. School North)
Mon 14th Apr	Literature Review Due 3 pm	School of Medical Sciences Front Office
Wed 16th Apr	Lecture – Grant Writing (Prof Robert Vink)	2 pm Neurological Diseases seminar rm
Thurs 8th May	Small Grant Due 3pm	School of Medical Sciences Front Office
Thurs 15th May	Small Grant Interviews	12 pm (rm 519, level 5, Med. School North)
Wed 17 th Sept	Lecture- Thesis Writing (Prof Robert Vink)	2 pm Neurological Diseases seminar rm
Fri 14th Nov	Final date for submission of thesis (due at 3:00pm)	School of Medical Sciences Front Office
Mon 24th Nov	Final Seminars and Viva examinations	9 am (rm 519, level 5, Med. School North)
Mon 1st Dec	Submission of 2 bound theses (incorporating any required corrections)	School of Medical Sciences Front Office