

Title: Health effects of stimulants and “party drugs”.

Supervisors: Rod Irvine, Jason White

Australia has the largest per capita use of "ecstasy" in the world. The adverse health effects of this on the individual are poorly understood. Our research is trying to understand the factors which may lead to the adverse effects of "ecstasy" and similar drugs using both naturalistic studies in humans and pre-clinical experimental studies.