

School of Population Health & Clinical Practice

Discipline of Public Health

Completed Honours Theses 1994 - 2008

Surname	First Name	Year of Completion	Thesis Title
Reed	Siobhan	2008	Was public health on the agenda in Australia's 2007 Federal Election?
Anikeeva	Olga *	2007	Ethical issues in GP responses to pandemic flu.
Capogreco	Tom	2007	Ethics and citizens juries.
Dyda	Amalie	2007	Surveillance for HIV and risk behaviours in Micronesia.
Larner	Andrew	2007	Evidence based policies around obesity in Australia.
Li	Li	2007	Health experience of Chinese born female immigrants of child bearing age to Australia.
Moyes	Linda	2007	Horizon scanning for Australian Public Health innovations.
Reed	Siobhan	2007	Politics and health.
Scarfe	Anje	2007	Standards for installation of child restraints in motor vehicles.
Vuong	Leanne	2007	Older women's understanding of health and wellbeing.
March	Georgina	2006	What should legislation be in South Australia in regard to sperm, egg and embryo donation?
Delany	Toni *	2006	Older women, wellbeing, informal support and identity: re-contextualising current understandings
Hutchins	Amy	2006	A needs assessment of the Swan Reach area, South Australia: Participation or consultation?
Savic	Michael *	2006	Reaching out to CALD women: factors facilitating community health work.
Champion	Stephanie *	2005	Delayed Motherhood

Astley	Carolyn *	2005	An analysis of the use of drug-eluting stent technology in the Australian health care system
Leong	Shem	2005	HIV/AIDS prevention approaches and strategies in South Africa and Uganda: a comparative case study
Carey	Gemma *	2004	Improving Tuberculosis Care in India: The Role of Social Analysis
McLoughlin	Pauline *	2004	Unhealthy Places: Examining asylum seeker mental health and the effectiveness of mental health promotion in the context of the Australian mandatory detention environment
Boynnton	Anna	2004	Help-seeking, pathway mapping and barriers to mental health care: a literature review
Easterbrook	Catherine	2004	Soldiers, mechanics and cleaners: How is nutrition and cancer conveyed to lay people?
Smitheram	Kylie	2003	Promoting physical activity amongst the ageing: An evaluation of the 'fit for action' program
Jones	Henry	2002	Bioethics: A public decision?
Stern	Cindy	2002	The South Australian enhanced pertussis surveillance project: Factors affecting household transmission.
Hillgrove	Tessa *	2002	Promoting healthy eating to young women in disadvantaged communities: A review of recent Australian programs.
Howard	Natasha *	2002	Malaria: Surveillance of a travel related disease in South Australia
Dimitri	Helene	2002	The influence of compensation in recovery following intervertebral disc injury
Fisk	Dana	2001	A study of eating habits amongst night shift nurses.
Tyson	Marguerite	2001	The impact of education on health for Aboriginal people in South Australia.
Deussen	Andrea	2000	Cost as an issue of access to non-prescription pharmaceuticals.
Lawrie	Tammie	2000	Change in antihypertensive medication in an elderly, previously treated population: No observed effect on general quality of life.
Russell	Georgie	2000	Soy and well being.
Jacobs	Ben	2000	Meta-analysis of secular growth trends in Australian children during the last century: do growth trends really exist?
Baccanello	Simon	1999	Time to reconcile, in search of a "middle way": Indigenous and non-indigenous relations in Australia.
Cooklin	Simon	1999	"It's not just about coping...": Perspectives on mental health in rural and remote South Australia.

Chittleborough	Catherine *	1997	Smoking and cigarette purchasing practices of South Australian school students.
Luke	Kathryn	1996	New and emerging infectious diseases: a public health threat?
Maglio	Mari	1996	The relationship between irregular work schedules and sleeping patterns in train drivers.
Sharp	Donna	1996	Maternal satisfaction with care: a public health issue.
Tennant	Sarah	1996	A survey of back pain in local government.
Broomell	Kylie	1995	Health promotion among the elderly: response to a falls prevention program.
Roffey	Michelle	1995	Older people in print media: myth versus reality
Copland	Linda	1995	Local government and public health: Thomas Borthwick and the Adelaide City Council, 1900-1924
Alton	Sarah Jane	1994	Peer education as a strategy for health promotion in older women
Hocking	Victoria	1994	Is exercise good for us?
Murray	Guy	1994	Farm safety in Australia
O'Connor	Melissa	1994	The Adelaide aged: staying put

 Indicates students who have subsequently proceeded to PhD candidature.

Updated Oct 2009