

FACULTY OF HEALTH SCIENCES

JEMIMA LENDRUM PRIZE FOR CANCER RESEARCH HONOURS PRIZE

GUIDELINES

Preamble

The family of the late Jemima Lendrum wishes to award a supplementary prize to an Honours student undertaking research relating to cancer within the Faculty of Health Sciences. The supervisor of the Honours student is to recommend a suitable and currently enrolled Honours student for the prize.

Eligibility

The student must be enrolled in a full-time Honours program within the Faculty of Health Sciences in 2009. The candidate must not be in receipt of any other equivalent award for the Honours year.

Selection Criteria

Selection will be made on the basis of academic merit, research potential and relevance of the research relating to cancer. Preference will be given to Honours students whose supervisor is a member of a University or Faculty Research Centre. It is anticipated that the Honours student will have demonstrated high academic achievement in his/her undergraduate studies.

The Faculty of Health Sciences Research Committee will recommend an Honours student based on the above mentioned selection criteria. The prize will be awarded by the Lendrum family during the Faculty of Health Sciences Research Expo on the 1st September 2009.

Benefits

The value of the Honours Prize is $750.00. The scholarship will be paid in form of a cheque.

Expectations of the Prize winner

The recipient of the prize will be expected to provide reasonable assistance in promoting the Faculty and University's research endeavours and to ensure all research undertaken during the Honours term makes reference to the Jemima Lendrum Prize for Cancer Research.

Application Procedure

Completed application forms (one original and one copy) plus a student's academic transcript should be lodged marked to the attention of Michelle Harvey, at the Faculty of Health Sciences Research Secretariat, Room NG13, Medical School North, Frome Road, University of Adelaide, SA 5005.

Enquiries should be directed to Michelle Harvey, Research Secretariat (ph: 08 8303 3132; email: michelle.harvey@adelaide.edu.au).

Applications close on 29 June 2009
